“ My favorite memory of Grandpa Kurt is the day, over summer vacation, that he came to visit my brother and I and we spent hours on the trampoline. We talked, we laughed, we enjoyed the sunshine on a perfect summer day. That day he showed Landon and I the tattoo that he got on his arm in honor of us.
I hope you're resting forever peacefully in God's Kingdom. ❤️

Had a great friendship with Kurt Emerson during the time I worked at JTL carriers. He was a great coworker. He was a great to be around. Had him laughing so hard many time when we ran across the highways as traveled back and forth . Going to miss the great times we had chatting. Many times at the star in porter Indiana. Travel the highways in heavens brother . RIP Kurt
