“ Uncle Larry was a man with a strong faith in God, especially so when his life was hard and not always fair. He set a great example of maintaining focus on blessings. He had such an amazing laugh, and an even more amazing voice when he sang. Happy memories of when he performed "O Holy Night" for his church and literally fell on his knees. Always one for going the extra mile. He was more than family to us, he was also a friend. Too many memories to list them all - him and Mom dancing, him and Dad keeping Golden Corral in business, many shared meals and simple drop-ins over the years. I picture Uncle Larry and Mom dancing together in Heaven, free from the pains and worry of this life. My prayers are with Aunt Faith, Becky, Rachel, and the rest of Uncle Larry's siblings and grandchildren.
