“ Dear friend first I was in shock then sadness now grateful that I took the time to visit and spend the afternoon with you on December 28. We talked of old memories, we laughed, I reminded you that you were not alone you would always be a part of my family. You asked about Tammy and Dennis and Brandon and Amanda I caught you up on their lives and it made you smile. When I left we hugged smiled and said our good byes that is my last memory of you and the years we spent together and will be forever in my heart
