“ Laura, I remember the first time we met. I took Sir Clifford out to breakfast for his birthday and he ask if he could bring his wife. Our relationship started there and you started coming to church after that. What a jewel you are. I will never forget our friendship and I will never forget how faithful you were to your ministry in the church. You always did such a wonderful job with the dinners, and you always made sure your pastor had some of your great deserts that I liked. I remember you always hid some for me. Wow, how thoughtful. When I think of you Laura, I think of your hands. Hands that were always at work taking care of your family and taking care of the kitchen at church. You are a breath of fresh air and we will miss you very much.....Pastor Bob & Linda Corby
