“ I first met sweet Laura back in the 1980's when she visited my antiques shop in Armada. She was so much fun to talk with and later I was simply thrilled when we discovered that we both had moved to the Thumb area!

When Laura opened her shop in Croswell I just knew she would succeed. Such a hard worker - very dedicated and such a warm welcoming person. I bought many a fine antique from her over the years.

Her sunny smile will be truly missed by we dealers who knew her as well as her customers and friends. Our business has lost a wonderful woman. Rest in Peace Laura.
