“Rosalie, Shannon and family, your family are a blessing. To have crossed paths in this life and come to know Laurie. Her fun loving and caring ways always conveyed her true heart. We will always have a smile in memory of this lovely lady. May you all have comfort in knowing she is dancing with Jesus today! One day we will all join in this celebration of life. May all those special times of memories bring a smile of comfort to hold you during this time. We care, and will keep you in prayer. Alex and Lesia

“ We'll miss your silliness – Can hear the sound of your voice - “I'm gonna get you, ya little whippersnapper,” as you would joke around. The shadow of death once again comes by, but we will not fear because we know we'll meet once again in glory! Until then, may the peace of God surround your family to know there is a place for us that is everlasting!

“ Laurie Burgess.....a special soul. She was full of unconditional love for everyone. Judgment wasn't a part of her vocabulary. Her hugs were many and very heart-felt. I loved how authentic Laurie was. She loved easily. I also loved how she spoke from her heart. When Laurie was your friend, she was your friend forever. It breaks my heart that she left us way too soon.....she will be in the hearts of her family and friends for ever and ever. She will be missed by many.

We send not only our love to you Laurie, but our appreciation for what a kind and compassionate person you were. You have, and always will, hold a special place in many hearts. Move on, precious Laurie, in peace and love. We will think of you often with love in our hearts....and we will miss you.
