“ I met Leona when she was around 5 yrs. old, our grandmother's were friends and she lived around the corner from me. When Leona was a senior in high school she pretty much spent most of her time at my house with me and my little girl who she definitely spoiled to no end, after that she became my best friend and confidant. Through the last 36 yrs. we lost contact once in awhile but never our friendship. I will always miss our phone conversations, hell I do already. RIP my friend, my sister, and always remember I love you to the moon and back. Gay
