“ I was always talking about Leonard to my friends. I was proud of my big brother and that he was in the service. When he came home he asked me if I would like to go to the movies in downtown Detroit. Well off we went and I was so proud being with him in his navy uniform. I still remember the name of the movie. "Bucket of Blood". I also remember I didn't like the movie.

“ Uncle Len had the kind of true grit that has lasted a lifetime with me. I spent a summer with him mowing and cleaning up HUD houses in Detroit. He had an old van with no AC. It was July and August in Detroit the murder capital of the US and with Uncle Len I never felt afraid and nobody messed with us.
