“ I remembered you as a small child, didn't see you again till Uncle Ed's funeral. Years later you told me you asked who's that girl with the long hair, well it was your niece, seemed strange having an uncle 10 years younger than me. This uncle I didn't really know, became a friend in the years that followed. From our camping trips in Michigan to our spring breaks in Georgia, playing cards, grilling, making fun of my southern accent, these are memories I will carry forever. The look you gave me when I showed up after your heart valve replacement, I just wish I could have made it up this time when you were sick. I'll forever remember your laugh, so many memories in a short period of time..you will be missed by MANY, but never forgotten!!

“ I've known Lincoln a long time but it wasn't until the last 3 yrs or so that I've gotten really close to him. He has been like a second father to me since I moved back to MI. Me and my family owe him a lot. He may not of had the greatest people skills in the world (Lol) but he did have one of the largest hearts I've ever been blessed to know. I'm gonna miss you big guy. Our world will never be the same. Love you and hope you are finally at rest in peace.

“ I will always remember the way that Shawnie would climb onto your lap and cuddle with you like a big teddy bear. You will be greatly missed, but you should know your great nephew will be named Jaxon Lincoln in honor of you. We love you Uncle Lincoln.
