“ Lifetime of memories with Lin!! Lin being the first born in our family. She was like a Mom to me. Good or bad, she was always there. My Sissy! She taught me how to sew, cook and clean house. Some home improvements too. Playing cards and board games was always a pleasure too!! Her and Dave built their house right next door to us. Us kids loved it. I am sure she didn't at times. She hosted my grad party and baby shower. Will always be thankful!! Loved our camping trips, canoe trips. Staying at her cabin in Onaway and her home in Harrison Township on the weekend's!! Loved spending time with David and Michelle, watching them grow up and getting married!! Lin was so proud of her children and grand children!! She talked so highly of them!! Lin went thru a lot ups and downs over the years. It made her tough and to the point. Regardless she still loved everyone! I am so proud to call her my sister!! Until we meet again in heaven, rest in peace dear Lin!! Much love and hugs to family and friends!!

“ Decades of memories, too many to share. Happy times shared, lots of family birthday parties, lots of kids around always. Everyone loved Aunt Lin. But she kept all the youngsters in line with a word, a look, or a band aid & hugs. Good times, sad times, very difficult times. She shared in all the ups and downs of life in big families. Caring, helping - her own family or in-laws, no matter. I wish everyone could have a sister-in-love like she was for me. And a devoted daughter-in-love like she was for our Mom and Dad. Her death leaves a hole in my life and one in my heart. We all loved you dearly, Lin. You suffered terribly. Rest now in the peace of Christ.
