“ I found this today looking in a box for crayons, I don't remember when this was or what it was for but it made me chuckle because it reminded me how worried and crazy you were when it came to the kids and how much love you had for them. And then it hurt because it reminded me of how much I miss you. I really wish you could still be here. I know you want me to move on and I am trying so hard. So hard but I just feel so lost and empty without you. My life is so different now. I don't feel whole anymore. I'm trying so hard to move on in the ways you would want me to, it's just hard doing it because I just miss you so much. I love you grandma forever. I will continue to keep trying everyday and I will keep trying to make you proud. I know I've been slipping but I want to do better and be better and make you proud.

I miss her like crazy. My heart still aches for her. She is so proud of you. She knows your struggles and is always by your side. We both know she is always watching over those kids.

“ I miss you so much, way more than my words can ever express. Some times it's so intense the longing for your presence again, it makes me unable to fall asleep because I miss calling you before the day was over or to tell you goodnight. I miss you leaving voice-mail all the time on my phone saying "it's just me, calling to check on ya, it's nothing important just call me back when you get this, love you bye" we miss going to your house to see you. I just miss you. I completely hate that you are gone. It's like a constant ache in my body that won't go away. I love you so much

“ I hope you had a wonderful Thanksgiving with uncle Donald and granny and all your husbands, and all your other missed loved ones up there. Our Thanksgiving was ok, it was a little lonely and very different without you and without going to your house. Some times it still doesn't seem real that you are really gone. I love you so much and I miss you terribly. Wish I could hug you and hear you talk to me. Xxoo

“ oh grandma, How I miss you so much and wish so badly you were still here. I know you were ready but I selfishly was not ready to live without you. I've always had you from day 1 and not having you now is just something I cannot put into words. I think about you every day. I miss you everyday. I am trying very hard to keep going forward and put on a strong face but sometimes its just harder than other times. I love you.

“ It will be exactly two months ago you left this earth. As hard as it was to be there with you, holding you while you took your last breath, I am truly honored you choose me mom. Its been real hard without you. Halies ready to give birth with no real plan. So of course I'm worried sick. Nicole is going to school for csis. She keeps a brave front but your passing has shook us all. Please watch over all of us Ashley included. I know shes hurting but dont like to show it. You will forever be in our hearts. I'm trying real hard mom to get over loosing you. I cry every day. But I also pray. I know you are well and feel your at peace. Now if I could get there. Love you mommy.

“ Mom i love and miss you so much. I miss our talks even the ones that were about nothing. We talked 5 or six times a day. You were my best friend. Please fly high and free. My heart is broken but i will pick up the pieces just like you wanted me too and go on and keep your grandbabies safe and happy. Not sure I can fill your shoes mom but I will do my best. I promise. I will never let you down again.

“ There aren't enough words to express what a wonderful person Linda was. It didn't matter who you were or where you came from she made you feel special and important. I know her family that lived close to her will be lost without her. What an inspiration and wonderful example she was.
