

Linda M. Taylor

February 2, 1952 - May 13, 2022

Linda M. Taylor, age 70, of Port Huron, passed away on Friday, May 13th, 2022. She was born on February 2, 1952 along with an identical twin, Cindy Reaves in Port Huron and was a lifelong resident.

Linda started her school career at Garfield Elementary and continued until graduating from Port Huron Northern in 1970. Linda's early years were spent going to Lighthouse Beach with her twin sister Cindy, developing a love and talent for writing poems and stories, and being known in her family for her humor and ability to entertain. Linda married Larry Wilson on April 7th, 1973 and began the next chapters in her life. She had four children and started a career as an optician in the Port Huron area that led her to retirement in 2010. Linda had a knack for befriending everyone she met due to her wit, kindness, and need for making someone else's day a little brighter. Her greatest joys in life were being a mother, grandmother, and being half of the famous Taylor twins.

“ Condolences to Linda's family. Many memories of her and Cindy while growing up near Palmer Park, the beach, and attending school together at Garfield and Northern. Knew her brothers well too as we played sports in the neighborhood and at Palmer Park. She was always friendly, a beautiful smile, and someone just like her there too. Whenever we crossed paths over the years it was always an enjoyable conversation while catching up. I know this is a tough loss for the Taylor family. I hope you will find some peace and comfort as you celebrate Linda's life and in the future when those moments hit you, you will always feel the love. Craig Dahlke

“ Linda was a beautiful person and loved her children unconditionally. I will always remember her as my second Mom. She always welcomed you with a big hug and laugh! She always had a joke or an impression she would make. I will always remember her as well for her love of sweets! Rest Easy Mom. Love you - Amanda
