“ Lisa became more than just a caregiver to my Grandmother. She was such a joyful, hardworking and entertaining woman. You could not but help but love her and her energy. I am heartbroken for her Stepfather, Mother and Uncle who she spoke of often. You are missed, Dear!!!.

“ Lisa, I sure do miss you, and I will always be grateful for the times we had together, all the ups and downs, the laughs and tears--all of it! You were one of the true bright sparks in this life's journey. I love you, darling girl. Here is a photo of a chaffinch I took last year that you really liked. I remember you said you enjoyed watching birds, and I dreamed of us birdwatching together, especially here in Scotland! Well, you're a little bird and you've flown away, but you'll always be in our hearts, dearest friend. Love you!

“ I have known Lisa since she was in junior high in Port Huron. Her brother Bert was one of my best buds and I spent a lot of time with Bert, Lisa and Carol in the apartment near Woodrow Wilson Elementary school. I have fond memories of those days and remember Lisa as a sweet little sister. I send my heart-felt condolences to family and friends. Bon voyage on your next journey Lisa. We love you and will miss you.

“ I miss you so much already!! We became such good friends in the past year and a half. We talked several times a day and had coffee together 5 days a week. You were truly the nicest, coolest, quirkiest friend I had in this beautiful city! I laugh every time I think about you putting plastic silverware upside down in your garden to keep your cat out of your garden. There is just so much I'm gonna miss about you. 😞 It's just NOT fair!! This world needs so many more people just like you!!

This is not goodbye. I will always have our memories. 💕💕
