“ Had lots of great Memories with Lisa my favorite was watching her interact with my kids looking for rocks at the beach for hours on end then sitting at the picnic table trying to figure out what we could make out of the rocks !! I loved working with Lisa and she always put a smile on everyone's face she will be greatly missed

“ We used to have some GreaT Memories @ Cedar Point camping in there camp grounds! All of are kids played together walked the park and the water park then went back to the camper for some great food and sharing stories after the kiddos went to bed and of course a couple good drinks! It's sad that are lives went in different ways while raising r kids u were a great friend to the point if I hadn't seen u for years and we ran into one another it was like there was no time lapsed between us other than r kids growing up so FasT. U will b Greatly Missed Lisa may you spread your wings with Joe and watch over the loved ones u left behind! Until we meet again Lisa
