“ I have known Lisa since we were children, being Debbie's younger sister she was never far behind. Throughout the years we shared laughs, talks and of course tears. She loved her children and grandchildren deeply and she fought a fierce battle. I will miss you Lisa. God Bless and may you have peace with your family in heaven.

“ Lisa and I were friends in the late 70's and early 80's. We lost touch as we married and had kids but re-united in these later years... when I think of Lisa I remember her as a fiesty, brutally honest woman. She loved her kids more than life itself. She believed in God, Jesus and the Holy Spirit. I pray that she is resting and is at peace. May she be joined in peace with her sister, Debbie, son, Scottie, husband and mother.

“ My dearest mom. I can't even begin to express how broken I am without you here. I already miss your voice, your kisses, your love. Until we meet again, give Scott and everyone up their big hugs and kisses! I love you more!
