“ I did not know Lisa, but I got to know her in a special way. I got to know her through the love of her mother Barbara Ream. Their love and relationship was ever present and the presence of it carried them together on Lisa's hard fought journey, May her precious memories give you hope, faith and strength and most of all love at this difficult time

“ Lisa, my beautiful friend. We have known each other since our beginning days at Mt Clemens General. I will miss you. To beautiful Maleah, you have had your Mother for such a short time. May her memory lead you through. She will forever be in your heart. Rob, you will one day meet again , your beautiful forever mate.

“ Oh my beautiful friend! Though time & miles separated us, the memories never will.
I am so grateful & thankful to know that you had a personal relationship with Jesus Christ so that once you stepped out of this world, your eternal world is filled with the presence of the love of God! I know those left behind will mourn the loss of your presence, but find comfort that one day they will see you again! You were only visiting this world, but now you are in the arms of Jesus! Praying for your family and those left behind. <3 Love you my friend, I am sorry I didn't tell you while you were here.

“ Another beautiful soul gone too soon. Lisa has been my neighbor for 10 years, and a kinder, sweeter person I have never known. She will be missed by all who know her. My deepest condolences to Rob, Maleah and the whole family. She is now resting peacefully in the hands of God.

“ Lisa had the most hilarious sense of humor! Through out this illness, she never complained or was angry. In fact, the only time she would cry was when she thought about her daughter, Maleah! The joke in our house was Lisa incredible ability to get out of the doing dishes! We will miss her contagious laughter! I feel blessed beyond belief to have been her friend and sister-n-law! Finally, the best news - Lisa accepted Jesus as her Savior and we will see her again.
