“ I worked with Lisa at Medilodge. Are taste in music was mutually fantastic and we shared many conversations about our love of Bon Jovi. I was unable to attend the service today so I had my own memorial for Lisa. Bon Jovi played in my jeep, training room and jeep again for 12.5 hours today. She will never be forgotten because she will be remembered with every song I hear forevermore.

“ Not only was Lisa a co-worker of mine, but she was also a friend.... She was a great person and a lot of fun. She also gave me the man in my life.... my dog ' Jovi ' and yes, he was named after 'our' man.... Jon Bon Jovi. Lisa was also my co-conspirator in our concert adventures to travel around and see Bon Jovi. We shared some great times. I will miss her a lot. My thoughts and prayers go out to her family and friends and to all the lives she touched Peace be with you Lisa.

“ Lisa always welcomed me into her home with open arms and a bottle of Redds Apple Ale. She was kind, sweet, loving, and such a bright person to be around. I always felt happy in her presence. Every summer I looked forward to pool days with Lisa, Lauren, and the rest of the Taylor gang. Ill never forget the time she included me in her girls trip up north to Port Austin and all the laughs we shared together there. Lisa made me feel like family and I'll never forget her kind soul. My heart is heavy for the Taylor/Parker family right now. I wish I could take all their pain away in this hard time <3

“ Lisa was not only a mother but a friend to both of my children. What I remember most is that both kids wanted to spend every Christmas at John and Lisa's home because it was always so festive, and her creativity put my decorating to shame.

I'm grateful Lisa was able to take the time to talk with me on the phone a couple months ago. I expressed to her how blessed I was to have her welcome my children as her own. Lisa was the best stepmother Lauren and Devon could have asked for.

Lisa was a strong person who had a big heart, and always put family first.

My deepest sympathies and prayers go out to the entire Taylor/Parker families. Lisa is with the angels now and in good, loving hands.
