“ A beautiful soul. Loved by many. Did a cute little hopping dance when she was happy. Loved old Don Knotts movies. Was kind to all. Loved to the end...and beyond by Joseph. Forever my Princepessa.

5 years gone. Will forever miss your smile my Principessa. I truly pray you have found peace. I imagine you with my sister Margaret laughing. Hope. I have just now...after 5 years deleted your pictures from my phone. The tree I planted for you is thriving, it blossoms every Spring with purple-pink flowers. Love always...Joseph.

Her death would not have happened if I was there. You all know her, only because I couldn't be there, and you all know who I am.

“ Rob, Greg & Kurt,

I was so very heartbroken to hear about Lorie. What a huge shock this was. I talked to her just a few weeks ago. I will always have the memories from our high school years and our memories of when you boys were little. I will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers. Lorie is at peace now and can rest easy.
