“ Luke at one time was one of my brother Donald's best friends. We always had fun hanging out. His favorite word at one time was Dude and from spending so much time hanging out with him, my brother and Daniella I picked up the endearing term. Lol. Luke, like my brother Don was a light that shined bright and he will be missed. I know he's up in heaven with my brother hanging out like the old days. We love you Daniella. My mom wanted you to know, your in our hearts and our prayers. If you ever need anything you know where we're at. 💜

“ I have many words I could share with everyone, but none seem more fitting than just saying Luke is now at peace.

It's been quite a road for Luke in this life, but never-the-less, he would always find a smile. & How could he not, that smile went from ear to ear. It's like someone close by cracked open a beer. ;-)

I knew him then, I knew him now, and I'll never stop remembering...

Thank you, Luke. For sticking around.

Thank you for the laughs, for the smiles.

All the thumbs up.

For always blowing kisses.

For you, my heart misses...

Love you always- That short little girl.
