“ We were all neighborhood kids without a care in the world. We were always there for one another, we had the best back yard base ball games, and camping out in my parents back yard watching the stars. Then life happened we all grew up had families of our own, but we still kept our line of friendship in tact. No matter how long we went without seeing one another it was always the same great family feeling we had when we did see each other. Smokie was the biggest hearted guy you would come across, always had a wonderful smile and a sparkle in his eyes. I'll miss you my friend, keep a eye out for us all, give all our loved ones a hug from us all when you meet them at heavens door. No more sickness, no more pain, just peace my friend. When the sun or stars shine down on us I'll know it's you with that sparkle in your eyes telling us it's ok your at peace. Until we meet again my friend, go fly high with the Angeles, with love your friend Barb S.
