

Lynda Kaye Bryant

January 31, 1945 - January 5, 2026

Lynda K. Bryant, age 80, passed away peacefully on January 5, 2026. Born on January 31, 1945, Lynda lived a life filled with love, faith, and music.

She was preceded in death by her father, William Clifford Wysel; her mother, Dorothy Jean Wysel; and her brothers, Mitchel Blayne Wysel and Terry C. Wysel.

Lynda is survived by her two daughters, Shannon Redwine and Billie (Shelli) Hillier; her son-in-law, Carl Hillier; three grandchildren, Jessica Macdonald, Kristen Bowen, and Donovan Hillier; five great-grandchildren; and her sister, Billie Bethel.

Lynda found great joy and peace in reading the Bible and cherished the comfort of music throughout her life. She was a talented musician who played the piano, guitar, and accordion. Her love for animals was boundless—she adored all her “critters,” far too many to name. Her warmth, creativity, and devotion to family and faith will be remembered and celebrated by all who knew her.
