“ My favorite memories of my mom, was our phone game. She would call say, hi fish, my response would be related..... Hello lips. Then of course we would laugh. Sometimes we would choose a word that the other person would be speechless over. Of course I would shock her (I'm sure she expected it and acted shocked.) with something gross once in a while. Or it would be something endearing. I miss this everyday. I miss our laughter. We had laughed until we peed many times. Right now I miss her voice and smile.

“ One of my favorite memories is Lynette riding around in the kitchen on Brandon's tricycle in the kitchen. I have a picture of that and cherish it. It always makes me smile, just as she did. I miss her
