“ I worked as an operator for one year at ACT Power Services and Mal was an exemplary teammate. I always enjoyed speaking with him on the phone and he was a truly brilliant technician. He will be missed dearly, and I pray that his family may find peace as we hold Mal in the light.

“ I've known Mal since elementary school. He has always been the same sweet and silly guy I've always known. 30+ years later still making time to wish me a happy birthday and tease me about funny events from our childhood. He will definitely be missed but never forgotten. Sending love, prayers, and condolences for his entire family, May God comfort you all during this difficult time. Kisha Robinson 🙏❤️
