“ Every interaction that myself and my daughter (Cheyenne) had with Marc was a positive one. The one that most sticks in my mind is when he helped change a flat tire in the rain no complaints only positive comments. It was one of those cold rainy days that we often get here in Michigan. He kept a steady stream of light positive talk while he was half under my car in the middle of a parking lot. Such a positive soul. You will be missed.

“ I have so many memories of Marc - playing with Ashleigh when she was little; those on the corner conversations or end of driveways - always a kind word and a smile I will never forget working together for a time and sharing laughs - but the most powerful memory that has never faded was his words of love for Tracy. He told me “I believe I was put here on earth to protect her”. My heart still floods with so many feelings. I have no doubt he will be watching over you in heaven Tracy You will be sorely missed 💕🙏. May you rest in peace All my LOVE, Bethany

“ I knew Marc through Tracey but the stories always made me feel like could pick him out of a crowd and be best friends immediately! He knew how to make you feel loved in the most special of ways and how to push all your buttons at the same time! He was the spice in your chili, the binder in your meals and the joy in your home. He will be missed but your memories will hold him close to you forever. Just know my prayers are with you and I'm a phone call away. Hugs and prayers, Connie
