Many years ago Margaret was my mother Doctor Lina Stella Kodet's office manager. She and her mother-in-law Mary Gildenpfenning were caregivers for myself and my sister Sasha for much of our childhood. She was very kind to us always. Although we have not seen her for many years we know that she is in Heaven with Mary. Sadly my own father Joseph died just 2 days earlier. It will be a sad Thanksgiving and Christmas for everyone this year.

Much love from Finn (Stefan) Kodet and Sasha Kodet.

Miss Margaret taught our daughter violin at Southern Thumb in Richmond for years and she was so kind and fun to be around. Rest in Peace.
