“Marilyn was the kindest person in the entire world. She was always such a delight to listen to, especially her Christmas stories, she was the most supportive and heartwarming lady, she would attend almost everything she was invited to like birthdays and dance recitals. My favorite memory with grandma was watching her become excited once my dance was over, she held her arms out and when I hugged her she had the biggest smile on her face. "You did so great honey, I am so glad I got to watch your beautiful performance", I wish we had more time together, but I know she is so happy where she is right now <3

“Mom” was a beautiful person inside and out. We always joked about things like... I was her daughter. And her sons just shock their heads! “Go ahead and shake your heads cause I’m your sister!” Which means...”better be nice to me cause I will tell on you to mom and dad”....while mom and I would chuckle. From that day on I only knew her as “mom”. I never called her by name...only “mom”. And for each moment we’ve spent together...she became more of my mom to me. As years past we still had many moments of me being her daughter and she being my mom! That’s what hurts most...the moments we shared are no longer. But in my heart you will always be my “mom”. I love you mom and I know you are in a much better place with “God” above where there will be no more suffering. A place of peace and life ever after. God has plans for you in his calling. And I believe...in my heart...you can do more from there! Just know that when I miss you I will shout to the skies...”mom”. Knowing I can still talk to you.

“ A dear friend of about fifty years has passed on to be with the LORD. We shared many ups and downs through life, and it is hard to know where to start. We shared times working with Trinity school where our children attended, and especially enjoyed working with the Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML). Over the years we enjoyed times together traveling in the motor home, outings at hunting camp Green Gables, shopping at the craft fairs, and always having good laughs along the way. We played countless games of pinochle with our husbands and friends, and worked jigsaw puzzles together at their Vassar home. So many memories it is hard to list them.

Our hearts ached for Marilyn and Dick as they struggled through years of her health problems, and Dick has been an outstanding and loving caretaker for many years. Now Marilyn has gone home to be with the Lord, and her pain and suffering is over. Marilyn, you will be missed. Now we look forward to the day we meet together again at Jesus' feet.
