“ I remember going to the PH Flags games. There "Peanut" would be, seated up behind the goalies net with my Dad, Ed Tetreau. My Dad made a daily visit to the tire store to shoot the breeze with Gene, Mark, and Joe. All of them full of wise cracks. My sincerest condolences to all his of family and friends. May the memories of the times together somehow bring comfort at this time, and may his memory live on in the hearts of all who knew him. God Bless!

“ I can remember when my dad would want me to take the truck in for tires. The boys would all joke with me about how many phone books I was sitting on. (I'm 4'11") And I would always see them at Silver Sticks, we all loved our hockey. My thought, prayers and hugs to everyone.
