“ *RIP- Took so young! I will forever cherish my kitchen set you got Me for my Birthday last year! He truly made my hard days better and my sad days brighter. You were so great at making sure your girls always smiles walking into your room. Calling me your ex-wife and Corie your current girlfriend just to get a smile out of us. You always felt like a bother to most, but I hope that me and Corie made your days better while we were with you. i'll miss our pizza night, or bringing you the 1st cup of coffee in the morning before you even woke up. I'll definitely miss watching TV in your room or just coming in to bother you because I could. I'll forever remember those hugs that I needed to just get through the rest of the day. All the memories we have. When we would make them send him out when he wasn't doing good and no one would listen. Everything he came back we made sure we were the ones he first saw. That damn boat he made. He always made the day so much better. Just sitting and talking with him. When he told me he didn't need you now that he had me lmao you were the ex and I am the new one. He was always so happy to see us every morning. Rest In Peace markie mark

“ The best memory I have of my dad is when my sister and I went to visit him when he was living in GA. He took me on a 5 hour tour on the back of his motorcycle. I felt so connected with my dad that day. I wish I could go back and live it all again. So many things I would say. May you rest in peace, dad.

I'm so happy you were able to share that time with your dad! Mark confided in me most of his life. He was living with me ;his aunt ; when he would hitch hike down 59 to meet your mom before they were married. Loved him always. Your aunt Delora (June) DeJohn.
