“ I have so many wonderful memories of my brother Mark that I will always cherish. Some of my favorite times is Mark and Cheryl would have Christmas Eve at there house every year being together with family eating good food and playing games I miss that. And my brother was famous with us for his baked beans whenever we would have a get together it was a must be had to make the beans . He made those beans a few weeks before he passed away at my son's father's memorial the last time I seen my brother. I will miss that handsome race that shy from you would do I will just miss you I love you RIP Mark I know mom was there to meet you with open arms until we meet again your loving sister Sue ♡♡♡♡

“ I've known Mark since we were young teenagers. His sister Jenny is my best friend and we share so many great memories of Mark. I had a crush on him forever. I remember one time We snuck in to his bedroom and I took his already chewed gum off his bed post. I still have it tucked away with all the young teenage memorabilia. I was so excited. I'm 63 now and I have to laugh now that I think about it because at the time he thought it was no big deal, but I thought it was. I will always remember. He was a great person. He will be missed. Rest in peace and may God Bless You. See you again some day. Love and prayers to Jenny and all the family.

We have known Mark for 30 years . Linda watched Cory and Matt when they were little tykes running around. The boys played Little League together and Mark and I coached against each other. I enjoyed playing against his team the best. We were both at our sons ball games in high school also. He would stop and visit me once in a while since then. He was a great guy and he will be missed by us. Our thoughts and prayers will be with all of you.

“ Mark has always been a part of my family. He and my brother Ron Keil were best friend's. They went into the army together. He married my best friend of 49 years, Cheryl, so this hits home hard. I pray for his sons, and Kayliana...keep your family near, show love. .
