

Mark A. Sedwick

January 16, 1961 - May 4, 2024

Mark A. Sedwick, age 63 of Luray, Virginia, passed away on May 4, 2024. He was born on January 16, 1961 in Luray, Virginia, to the late Thomas and Mary Sedwick.

Mark Anthony Sedwick was an advocate sports fan. His favorite sports teams were Washington Redskins, Atlanta Braves, and New York Rangers. But most of all, anyone would tell you he was a diehard NASCAR fan and he traveled to many different racetracks across the states to root on Jeff Gordon. In his younger days, Mark also enjoyed golfing and never played the same course twice in a row.

Mark ran his own garage door business for 30 plus years. He was a whiz and anyone who knew him would vogue that he was a walking encyclopedia. If you needed to know the answer to a trivia question of any kind, he was the man you would call.

Mark was a generous man with a huge heart. Anyone that had the privilege to meet him could attest to that. It goes without saying that he would give the shirt off his back. He loved his dog, Max, and his children & grandchildren wholeheartedly.

Mark is survived by his children, Scott Douglas Gossman (Briana Gossman), Heather Lynn Jones (Carl Jones III), Mark Anthony Sedwick (Bry-Anna Sedwick), and Michael Thomas Sedwick; and his grandchildren he loved so dearly, Kaden, Landyn, Scottie, Skylar, Owyn, Everly, Elayna, Kyra, and Liliana.

Mark was preceded in death by his father, Thomas Anthony Sedwick, his daughter, Michelle Lynn Louderback, his mother, Mary Lee Sedwick, his uncle, George Edward "Freddie" Sedwick, his granddaughter, Kelsea Kay Sedwick, his aunt, Juanita Maye Sedwick, and his uncle, Raymond Lee "Ray" Sedwick.
