“ My son Stan and Marv were best friends growing up along with Tom Kerr. They were like the three Musketeers foaming the area and building forts as well as friendship through the years. Stan was best man at Marv's first wedding. I know they're together now in Heaven and I am so sad to hear of his passing.

“ To the family of Marvin J Westfall. Please accept my deepest remorse at the loss of your beloved Marvin. I worked with Marv for many years at the hospital and considered him a good man and a good friend. I prayed for Marv over the years, my prayer being that Marv would know the love that Jesus has for him. I haven't seen Marv for a couple years because I retired. I'm hoping Marv rests in the arms of our Lord this very moment. May you all be at peace, God bless you now and forever. Jim Voiland
