“ I just found out yesterday about the passing of one of the dearest friends in my life since 12 years old. I knew it would happen sometime this year as her health declined, but how can you be ready for it. The week earlier she had called to say she had pain and doctors found a twisted heart aorta, and it just so happened other dear ole school friends were visiting so we all got to talk to her.

She was an exceptional person who went through so much in her life from a troubled home with alcohol, abuse, losing three men in marriages and a daughter to medical problems from cancer, stroke, cutting a finger off at work etc., but she had the best personality and always laughed and joked and dealt with what ever hardship came her way

We had a close knit group in high school and played every sport there was and we had so much fun then, and always kept in touch through all these years since graduating 1959 from Oak Park, Michigan. She was the most popular girl in our class and probably the school with her joking, singing and upbeat attitude. Her late husband Dennis adored her and took care of her and was 15 years younger. I will miss her terribly along with our other close knit fellow high life long school friends.

My heart goes out to her son, daughter-in-law, grandchildren and other family. This is awful getting older in our 80s as we keep losing friends, husbands, and Mary is one of five of us left a widow, but we sure have had a great life with good, and troubled times but made the best of it. We are all blessed.
