“ My dear Aunt Mary Jean was such an amazing strong hold for me. Such a peacekeeper, she made me feel as if I mattered. When I lived in Marine City, I'd visit her out of the blue. When I'd come to her home, she'd pull two coffee cups with muffins or bread to comfort me if I'd wanted to chat. With her soft spoken voice, she'd always talk with me of words of confidence an meaningful love. Always a strong hold, she had an affinity for cats and all creatures. God bless you Aunt Mary Jean. We'll miss you always.... - Love, Cindy and Shirley Patterson

“ My dear, sweet Aunt Mary Jean was the most influential persons in my life. At my lowest point, she embraced me and care for me with a listening ear. When I lived in Marine City, unexpectedly, I'd stop in to visit and she'd pull out coffee cups and muffins. It was almost as if she was expecting me. She had an even keeled temperament and offered the most sound words to calm me when I thought life was lost. In addition to her love and generosity, Aunt Mary Jean faithfully sent me these beautiful custom birthday cards even after I moved to New York (I've kept them all)! Thank you Aunt Mary Jean for making me feel that my life mattered ♥♥♥♥♥♥♥♥♥♥. I love you always -
