“ Mary. I'll miss you and your text messages. Lacey will miss you, she loved licking your face and playing with you in the yard. The day after you passed we had thunderstorms, I told your dad that you, your mom, and Kim were at it again causing all that ruckus up there. Thanks we needed the rain.

We seen 3 female cardinals in the bird bath yesterday by your dads, aunt Rosie, Lil Dolly, and I said they are You, Your mom, and Kim. Your dad is keeping them clean and full of water for the birds. He said those were his orders from you, and he is doing a really good job.

You suffered a long time in pain with your back, you were a strong woman to endure that pain for many years. My heart is broken 💔💔💔 RIP

Love

Jackie & Diane.

“ Uncle Leo is sharing a memory of when his mom babysat Mary while Mary's mom Dolly (MY Sister) worked!! I use to take Mary to the park down the street from Cadillac St. and we always had "fun"!! Mary was such a sweet little girl!! I nicknamed her "Little Devil Woman" because she was so full of mischief and the song "She's a Devil in Disguise" was popular!! God Bless You Mary!! Me and my whole family's condolences are with you Ed, Paul and all Mary's Family!!! We are not going to be able to make it tomorrow but we are sending lots of love and hugs and kisses!!! Jesus has his arms wrapped around all of you giving you HIS comfort!!! Love! Uncle Leo, Aunt Laura, Damian Briguglio, Shawn Briguglio, Rick Baumgarten, Danielle Baumgarten and all of our Grandchildren too!!

“ Paul, Don, and family, I was very sorry to hear about Mary. She always had a smile on her face, and I never heard her say a bad word about anyone. You all are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

Rest in peace Mary.

“ Mary was certainly a city girl. She was introduced to the country life as a child making those summer trips to North Carolina to visit with her North Carolina family. Trips to Cherokee, the pool, boat rides on Fontana Lake, a rafting trip down the Nantahala River, inner tubing down Deep Creek, and any other day trips we had gave Mary the insight to the joys of mountain life.

My childhood memories of Mary are of fondness and sweetness. My deepest condolences to her son, Paul, her father, Edwin Donald, any other family members and close friends.

*With love,
Connie Allen (first cousin)*
