“ So very sorry to read of Mary's passing! She was a great person and friendly hairdresser! I used to bring my mother in law and of course we had many good conversations. Missed that since her retirement. RIP Mary ❤️🙏

“Happy Heavenly Birthday Mom! We had a small celebration today to honor you and your birthday. It was a glorious day and I say that, because you reassured me that you were at peace. We had witnessed a cardinal today and an angel in the beautiful blue sky.

You can try to carve a faith out of your own, but a broken spirit may dry out the bone. And the edges of the night may cause you sorrow. When the hope that you hold tightly to has all but vanished, and there are no words of comfort to be found. You will know what it means to be lost and without love, may you fight to kill that deafening sound. You know I may not be around this time tomorrow, but I'll always be with you. Yeah, I'll always be with you. I felt that today. What an amazing soul, best friend, mother, confidant, selfless and compassionate person who fought for everything she believed in. I know that death ends a life, but it doesn't end a relationship. I also know that you fought so hard because as the mother, grandmother, wife and sister that you were, you didn't fear death, but feared that in this world no one could love us all as much as you had. We were spoiled and blessed in so many ways. I hope you had an amazing birthday because we surely did today in your honor. Our loss is their gain, an eternal gift that they are truly lucky to have and that we were lucky enough to have experienced. I love you Mom and Happy Birthday! ❤️
