“ I called her mom, she was one of my best friends moms and she became mine by proxy....i walked to that trailer park almost every day back in school, only went home when it was starting to get dark. My mom always knew i was safe, i had a few moms there that looked out for me and Mary was one, hanging out after school was always fun. I haven't seen her in forever and haven't talked to dawn in too long, this really makes you think about things and missing people that were and should still be very important. Tom, Dawn and Leeann....i love you guys and I'm so sorry for your loss
