

Mary G. Thompson

March 24, 1955 - April 28, 2026

Mary Grace Theobald Thompson, age 71, of Port Huron, MI, passed away peacefully on April 28, 2026, surrounded by the family she loved so dearly. Born in Detroit on March 24, 1955, Mary was a woman defined by her vibrant spirit and undeniable spunk.

On August 14, 2004, she married Bruce Thompson, beginning a 22-year journey of deep, unconditional love. Mary was truly full of life; she found her greatest joy in the company of friends and family, whether she was competing in a bowling league or gathered around a table for a lively game of cards.

She is survived by her devoted husband, Bruce; her daughters, Georgina (Micah) Theobald-Hiler, Marie Whitt, Amanda (Michael) McFadden, and Meggan Thompson; and her cherished grandchildren, Cody Hiler, Destiny Heacock, Lacie (Tyler) Thompson, Morgan Clark, Haylie Clark, Zander Semrow and James Clark. She also leaves behind two great-grandsons, Jamison Hiler and RJ Winchell; mother, Donna Thompson, her sister, Linda (Joe) Anderson; brother, Mike (Bonnie) Borowski; many step-brothers and step-sisters, and a large, loving circle of cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Family and friends are invited to gather for a celebration of Mary's life. We will begin sharing memories at 12:00 p.m. on Saturday, August 15, at Sutherland Park (Howard Road Pond).
