“ Matt I love you so very much. You were so sweet and kind to me everytime I came down state and spend time with you and your Mom. Cousins forever even though God has taken you to Heaven I will always think of you. I sure wish I could be at your memorial but your Mom understands. You have fought life in so many ways. You were a fighter against all your health. My grandchildren enjoyed meeting you because you treated them nice when we came down. So Matt tell all my relatives up in Heaven I love them all. And one day I will be there too but hopefully not soon. I love 💕 you Matt. Love Roseann

“ Matt, I know we were never super close but I definitely considered you a brother to me. You have been so selfless ever since the first day that i met you over ten years ago. It was freezing in the middle of winter & Richard had a caffeine migraine (& you knew how horrible they are)
He was miserable & his car was broken down, & I remember you leaving to ride ur moped to the store to get him a monster. & It was crazy to me. You weren't going there because you needed anything. you just saw someone suffering and wanted to help. & then in the past two years i have seen you do so much for your family and i guess i just wanted to write and let you know that you touched more people's lives than you know. you meant so unbelievably much to your family. & you truly will be forever missed. fly high & rest in paradise. x

“ Matt, first let me say that I love you so much and your niece and nephews do too. You will be forever missed. I have so many memories of you. One of my most memorable one is when we would bump our hips together and sing, " me and my brother (sister) are best Buddies!" and then I would flip g you half way across the room, lol. You always thought you were somehow going to flip g me across the room, but it didn't matter we still had our little moment. We didn't always get along but we knew we were always there for each other no matter what. I will miss you little brother, and even though it hurts, I know you're not struggling and that you're in peace with all of our other angels. Rest easy Matt, I love you ❤️
