

Maxine Louise Wall

November 11, 1924 - February 29, 2012

Maxine Louise Wall, age 87, was called to Heaven on February 29, 2012. She was born in Yale on November 11, 1924 to Herbert and Ethel Koch. She graduated from Yale High School in 1942 and then attended Port Huron Junior College. Maxine then pursued her dream of becoming an artist. She attended art schools here in Michigan, Connecticut and in Switzerland. Maxine worked as a commercial artist in the Detroit area, was a fine arts painter working with oils and frequently taught oil painting classes as well. Her art work has been exhibited in Geneva, Switzerland, Saugatuck, Birmingham, St. Clair and Port Huron, Michigan. Not only was she an accomplished artist, she was also proficient at the piano and was skilled in the arts of crocheting and knitting.

Maxine was a quiet and dignified woman. She spent her last years in the caring environment of Marwood Manor. She continued to practice her art work and drew the cover for the 2010 Christmas Tea invitations. She also enjoyed participating in the many activities at Marwood, especially working in the gardens.

She is preceded in death by her son; Bobby, father and mother; Herbert and Ethel Koch, and a brother; Kenneth Max Koch

Maxine is survived by her nephews and nieces; Kenneth Max Koch of Bad

Axe, Mark (Katherine Lark) of Hanover, New Hampshire, Jeffrey (Thimmie) Koch of Mountain View, California, Kathryn (Alan) Skinner of Port Huron, Karen (Eugene) Brasse of Caldwell, Idaho and Rebecca Pettengill of Troy, Michigan. She had ten great nieces and nephews, as well as seven great-great nieces and nephews. She is also survived by her faithful friends; Irma and Lyell Schneider and Richard Ripley. She will be sorely missed, but know that she is with the angels in Heaven.

Graveside services will be: Saturday, March 17th at 1:00 p.m. in Sunset Memorial Garden Cemetery Chapel. The Pastor John Carrier of Trinity Lutheran Church will officiate.

Cremation arrangements by: Jowett Funeral Home – 1634 Lapeer Ave at 17th St., Port Huron.
