“ I loved Melinda before she was even born. That beautiful red hair blue eyed baby girl won my heart even more when she was born. One day I was babysitting her, we took a walk in yard looking at all the flowers, she started to cry and told me the birdies bite. Later I learned it was really mosquitoes, I felt so bad because we kept walking around the flower garden. Poor baby had bites on her little chunky legs and arms.
May Melinda RIP, PRAYERS for family. Aunt Sheila
