December 24, 1962 - November 27, 2021

Melvin Robin (Rob) Reynolds, age 58, of Ira Township, passed away peacefully on November 27th, 2021. He was born on December 24, 1962. As he is most known, Rob Reynolds. Rob was an accomplished businessman who took great pride in the co-ownership of Client Financial Services. He was a sports enthusiast, whether playing or watching, especially golf and football. He loved traveling, boating, a good cocktail, gambling, and shopping. He liked to tell a good story, something he inherited from his father, Melvin Reynolds. He greatly admired his mother, Yaeko Reynolds, for her strength and tenacity. He was married to his wife, Janice Reynolds, who stood by his side for 21 years. He had four beautiful daughters, Danielle (Brian) Cunningham, Chloe Reynolds, Sophia Reynolds, and Samantha Reynolds. He adored his children and worked passionately to give them the best life he could provide. We hope his friends and family will join us this summer in a "Celebration of Life." In place of flowers, the family asks that you kindly make a donation to St. Judes Children's Research Hospital.

“ Rob was the best father a mother could ask for. His children always came first. I know because he gave me my precious Chloe. My deepest condolences to the Reynolds's family at this most difficult time.
