“ I've known mike many years, and his light was so bright he would shine anywhere, and everywhere. It didn't matter who was there, or what was going on, if Mike was there the room was in happy mood. The reason everybody liked Mike so well is because he was so genuine, and sincere! If he said it, he meant it, and he gave equal respect to all. You could count on Mike to always be real, never fake, always on the level, which is why people wanted to be around him. His wit was very sharp too, always on the next level, but always in a subtle low key manor that would keep you on your toes. Rest in Paradise my friend! My prayers for the Family.

“ I 1st met Mike in 1992, at Yorkshire Tavern where I was a bartender. He introduced me to my late husband John. Mike and John worked at Kerr Albert together. They used to play cards at our house every Friday night, for quite some time. He was a groomsman in our wedding, and so much more. Mike was such a big part of Mine and John's life. And after John passed away, he was still a big part of my life, and my new life, with my new husband. He was more than a friend to me, he was family. He and I were church pals, we always sat together at church.

Mike often spoke of his family. His parents, and siblings and their kids. I felt like I knew them. I got to meet some of Mike's family today under these horrible circumstances, and I can see where he got his compassion and kindness from. I Loved Mike like a brother, and I am so in shock and I already miss him terribly. I am in disbelief. The one thing I can say of all of this, is that I know Mike is with the Lord and even though this hurts, and it will for a long time. There is no better place to be. My condolences and sympathy go out to his entire family. Please know he was a wonderful human being and he was very Loved. Sincerely, Ann Morris

“ My friends and I first met Nascar at Wheatland Music Festival 20 plus years ago. We met up many times at this festival and enjoyed ourselves. He was a very kind and caring man. We spoke not long ago about meeting up again this year. We will all miss him greatly.

“ Mike was a great man to my daughters and I. We loved him very much. Life will not be the same without him but I'm so grateful for the time we had together.

As a child he dated my grandmother and always treated me as if I was his own grandson. I remember him taking me to hockey games, Tigers baseball games, Pizza Papalis in the D, camping and most importantly he helped me out in my hardest times. He allowed me to grow when I was a child and even more so as a grown man who had no where to go.

My success story doesn't get told without mentioning all that Mike did for me. I wish I could've told you one more time, how much I appreciate and love you. Mike showed love to my daughters as well and always lit up when they were around. Your memory will always be cherished. May you rest in peace, may our paths cross again..

“ This picture kind of sums Michaels personality . He was like the annoying older brother. After having known him for 20 years or so I also knew this with all my heart. That if the chips were down and you needed help, no matter what time of day or night Mike would be the one you could count on. You will be missed Michael. Fly high with the angels. RIP and my sympathies and prayers to the family.

“ To say you will be missed is an understatement. You walked me down the aisle at my wedding, you were there for the birth of my boys, you were part of our lives for the past 20 plus years. This is such a heavy loss for us. As big of a pain that you could be at times, you will be missed so so much Papa Mike.
