“ Dear Diane, Dennis and Family,
The loss of Michael comes as a shock to us.
It is, we know, almost impossible to bear, but you are in our thoughts and prayers.....and those of so many others who share your sorrow.
Love, your friends,
Brenda and Emilio

“ Mike has made me laugh nearly EVERY day for 30 years from high school on. Too memories to tell.

For the last 10 years I woke up to a text from him to "Rise and shine you s.o.b." and talked all day until he said "ok, time to hit the rack". I miss it already. Our friendship lasted so long because of the kind of person I knew him to be. Thoughtful, generous, funny as hell and with a big heart. He was genuinely a great guy that loved his friends and family very much. I will think of him every morning and just before I "hit the rack". My condolences to his family.

“ Mike was a great, funny and caring man. I remember belly laughs (and incessant eye rolling) anytime he visited and when he and Rob got together! His timing was impeccable and I will miss him dearly. I'm so sorry for this loss and for his family to go through this pain.
