“ Michael always went out of his way to hug me and ask how I was doing, even if I hadn't seen him in years. At the 5th of July party at uncle Tom's house I was running late. When I walked around the corner Michael was right there at the picnic table with a big smile and a big hug for me. I sat with him and Brandon and we talked and ate the whole fruit tray :) I am so very thankful for that conversation. I'm also thankful for all the memories of spending the night with Becky and Michael as a kid while Shawn and Michael drove Aunt Brenda and Uncle Tony insane! Rest in peace now Cousin. You're forever in my heart. Xoxo. I will miss his leather jacket hugs!
