“ He loved his family. He cared for his mom, making sure she was safe and had what she needed getting up very early during the week to visit with her while Dianna worked. Dianna and he loved and took care of each other and his sense of humor and kindness was appreciated when he visited Trinity to pick up Dianna and help with the grandkids. May God bring you peace.

“ I remember working at Trinity and Michael would always stop in to see the babies, with a big smile on his face. He seemed to enjoy the little ones, I bet he was an amazing grandfather. God Bless the family and my deepest condolences 🙏❤️
