“ Michael Johnson was my step father for 10 years, and I will always love him for how he taught me how to appreciate the things he loved. Music, food and all his kids, including myself. He taught me how to love music, all different kinds! I learned how to love it and it has always been a huge part of who I am. Mike taught me to believe in myself, I have always been small.... But he said this was a superpower! So, I have always loved being small ❤️ He always encouraged me to do what made me happy, and cooking makes me happy! I still love it! Thank you for that! I am sorry that we didn't stay close as life moved forward, just know you hold a very special place in my heart, love you 😊 Rest in peace dad xoxo
