“ Micki it's been a week and I still can't believe you're gone. We've made a lifetime of memories in two years , you have made me a better person to say the least . I love you Baby! You were loved by so many , I never would have imagined the outpouring of support and kind words from your friends . You left me way too soon , but I guess we can't choose when we are called up . God must have a plan , look down and guide me when things get tough . I'll do my best , see you soon Baby , Love You
