“ *Becky and Ed
So sorry to see that your Mom has passed away. Your family were our first neighbors and it was so great that Millie was with us when Eric and Heather were born. Then she was right next door to help me as a new mom with no experience. Good memories of your family and Millie.*

Peace be with you, Joyce and Jim Josef.

“ It wasn't what she said or did that I'll remember " the look".
Sometimes it was with a look to the skies, sometimes a look at the ground or a gentle shaking of the head. One time about the mid 80s we were at her & Dave's house. The first thing that happened when we got there Dave took us out to hi's shed to show us his new saw, I think it was a radial arm, could have been table, been along time. About an hour later as Dave was showing off his saw to the newest arrival she turned to me and gave me " the look ". It was accompanied by this grin , kinda halfway between smile & frown...I took it to mean " boys will be boys " or "he's lucky I'm a nurse"...or both...she will be missed

Thank you for sharing this, Uncle Jay. It was her "all-knowing" look. She carried a lot of wisdom.

Thank you all; you mean so much to our family. I happened to find pictures of John Gregory & David when I was at her house, cleaning, yesterday.
