“ To Morris's family

We are friends of Morris and our Aunt Alice whom he lived with for some time. Our hearts are saddened for all that lost a warm, loving, and peaceful man. He was always humorous and he made everyone feel welcomed. You could sit and talk so casually. My parents and my brothers and sister loved when they visited anywhere.

May God grant him his eternal reward in heaven forever.

So sorry for your loss. I will miss him and our phone calls to one and other. We always talked about the Tigers. Bob brought him up to see us a year ago last summer. He and Gary had a good visit.

“ Uncle Morris

You would always stop by Mom & Dads house when it was a mess and that would anger Mom. Then after I bought my house you would call and ask what I was doing and you were in my driveway. I enjoyed or talks and lunch/dinners together. I hope you fine comfort and peace in the arms of the angels
