“ Murray loved Christmas. I remember how beautiful he decorated his apartment & door. It was awesome! He also had lots of Christmas houses that only added to the beauty of the Holiday season. I will miss him this Christmas, but I know he is in a better place...
Love & Blessings,

“ Murray was my very best friend & we had an absolutely beautiful relationship. We did everything together. Every night, dinner & a movie. We would eat out & go see movies at Sperry's. Murray just loved to get out & go places. When I was sick in 2019 Murray cared for my little dog, Zuki plus check on me every day to make sure I was OK. I don't know what I would have done without him. I also took care of Murray to the best of my ability as in 2019 he started to become ill with different problems. He just slowly downhill. He had a strong will to live & fought the good fight.

I will always have a special kind of love for Murray. He helped me so much with his kind, supportive words & gestures. I guess we both filled an empty space in our lives. Without Murray I would not be here now. He came into my life when I needed someone the most. We also shared our love of animals. Murray has his wonderful dog, Junior & his cat, CoCo. I had my little Pekingese, Zuki & my cats, Scarlett & Mika. They all loved him too! Our friendship was unconditional & for the first time in years I started to feel good about myself. I started to look at life in a new way. It wouldn't have happened without Murray.

I will always miss & love Murray for all he has given to me. I feel honored & blessed to have been a part of his life. Such a beautiful, humble, caring man.

God Bless You, Murray. You will always be alive in my heart & soul.
Both Alan & I have you in our thoughts & prayers
